

WEDDINGS OF A DAY

Southerland—Williams.

ASBURY PARK, N. J., Oct. 27.—The Windmere cottage at Allenhurst, the Summer residence of Mr. and Mrs. Ezekiel C. Williams of West Eighty-second Street, New York, was the scene of a brilliant wedding at high noon to-day. The bride was Miss Elizabeth Herbert Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Williams. The bridegroom was Hugh Brock Southerland, son of the Rev. Dr. Alexander Southerland of Toronto, Canada. A special train over the Pennsylvania Railroad brought down several hundred guests from New York, Jersey City, Brooklyn, and other places.

The Rev. Dr. Southerland performed the ceremony, which was under a canopy of palms in the main hall. The bride wore white satin with point lace. Diamonds were her ornaments. Her sister, Miss Mabel Williams, was maid of honor. She wore pink grenadine over pink satin. Percy H. Williams, a brother of the bride, was best man. M. J. Castree Williams and W. Ray Totten were ushers.

Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. B. Totten, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Castree, Mr. and Mrs. William Searles, Dr. and Mrs. Frank A. Baldwin, Mr. and Mrs. J.
